

Welcome to Your Greatest Strengths

The Career Navigator system has a unique way of identifying your special strengths. It measures 175 traits and identifies your highest priorities and values - where you invest yourself and what you love doing the most. When you are able to use these key strengths, your career is more fulfilling and successful. Effort you spend on further building your strengths is likely to help your career at least as much as focusing on your weaknesses. Strengths relate to enjoyable patterns of thought and behaviors that can be productively applied. When these are refined with practice and combined with skills and knowledge that you acquire, this gives you a powerful means of moving your career forward. The Your Greatest Strengths report lists the things you enjoy and are good at. Come back to it regularly when you need a reminder. Remember, play to your strengths!

Job Seekers

If you are currently a job seeker, being able to clearly verbalize your strengths can help you to get the job you are seeking. Consequently, we recommend that you reflect on the strengths below as well as your achievements that were a result of applying these strengths. This will enable employers to better understand how your unique strengths can create value for their organizations.

Currently Employed

If you are currently employed, look for ways you can further apply these strengths in your current job. The more you can apply your strengths, the more likely you will achieve high levels of job satisfaction and career success.

Are the scores reliable?

The system checks to see if the answers were completed honestly and while paying sufficient attention. Analysis indicates there is a high likelihood the answers were truthful, accurately self-aware, and completed with sufficient concentration.
